

Hi Friends,

Is everyone getting your sneakers on, getting your PB bags ready, getting those water bottles filled, getting healthy snacks packed for munching, all for our evening of Regency League Play!

So, what can you expect starting at 6:00 this evening? Our Regency PB family can expect competitive play, motivational captain speeches, supportive friends cheering along the sidelines, overworked Tom Cullen capturing moments, and best of all- a good time for all!

Keep in mind the rules for play-good sportsmanship-and safety first. Speaking of safety-the PB Board voted to remove the pool skimmer. We noticed the occasional skimmer/shade canopy entanglement. It is preferred to avoid ruining any new court accoutrements, plus let there be no evidence for the argument against another gate.

Time for me to get myself together. Looking forward to being together tonight!

Come pickle with US,
Lisa
